About this opportunity

Situated in the village of Markfield, Leicestershire, the Coach & Horses is a village pub and dining venue, prominently located on the main A50 road. The car park is large and the south-facing garden with children's play area is one of the most impressive you'll see.

This is a great family pub with a good reputation for food and events. From baby groups and 'Fizz Fridays' to well attended live music events this pub caters for all.

Coach and Horses, Field Head, Markfield, LE67 9RF

The community

Markfield is a commuter village in both the National Forest and Charnwood Forest and in the Hinckley and Bosworth district of Leicestershire.

It is just off Junction 22 of the M1 motorway, and the pub sits on the A50.

Markfield is a well thought of location with great schools and beautiful countryside on your doorstep.

With the countryside so close, you will find ramblers and families on days out at nearby Bradgate Park, Swithland Woods and Thornton Reservoir come rain or shine!
