About this opportunity

As a traditional village pub, The Wheatsheaf prides itself on being at the heart of the community. Current business owners Sam and Victoria have worked hard to bring their local community a pub to be proud of, and one step in the door of this beautiful pub and you can see they have done the village proud.

The Wheatsheaf is a classic country pub, with complimentary modern accessories that bring the pub to life with colour and warmth. It oozes comfort and cosiness, from the roaring fires in the bar area right through to the pretty finishing touches in the separate restaurant area. It's clear the pub has been well looked after and you would be hard pushed to sit and have a drink or eat in nicer surroundings locally.

This pub sits opposite the beautiful St. Mary's church, on a quiet road in Dallington and is well positioned in the village.
